

December at Sonoma

New Year's Eve

Ring in 2011 at Sonoma with all your favorite winter dishes!

To celebrate New Year's Eve, we will be offering three-course and four-course menus as well as a five-course chef's tasting for those of you who like to be surprised. Prices start from $50 per person with optional wine pairings from $25. Make sure to book early to avoid disappointment and check out our menu on our website.

Happy Hour in the Avenue Lounge

Happy Hour is still on throughout December !

From Tuesday's through Saturday's, 5-7pm (except when the lounge has been booked for private events)! We will be offering daily Italian cocktails, Italian wines and beer in our lounge all served by your favorite Hill bartenders. So for a relaxing spot with great food, inexpensive drinks and a chilled out ambiance, make sure to stop by.

Winter Menu

Arguably our best Winter menu to date! Here are a few dishes to keep your belly warm and your taste buds tingling!

House-made spaghetti, local mushroom ragu, marsala and truffle pecorino 45 day local dry aged rib eye, sweet potato puree, grilled rapini and house-made steak sauce

House-made brioche muffin, warm trig apple marmalade, black walnuts and mascarpone cream

Chef's Tasting Menu

Not only for special occasions!

We have received such great feed back about Chef Mike's new menu that we are now offering a four-course prix-fixe that includes all of Chef mike's favorite creations. This menu is available every evening for just $45 with carefully selected wines to complement each dish for an additional $30.

All the Rest

Remember that we still have some availability for Holiday Events in December and that we are offering a 10% discount on all private evening receptions and dinners in January 2011!

Stop by to meet our brand new manager Kristin Cook. Kristin is passionate about her wine, so make sure to say hi on your next visit and she will be more than happy to talk your ear off about our 40 wines by the glass!

Thanks again for your support and keep checking our facebook page for regular updates.

As always, please keep letting us know what you think about our food, wine, service and anything else that you want to tell us. We never get tired of hearing compliments but we can take constructive criticism as well!

See you soon at Sonoma Restaurant and Wine Bar
